

Please refrain from visiting the museum if you have any of the following:

- ✓ A fever over 37.5°C or 99.5°F
- ✓ Cold-like symptoms such as coughing, sneezing, running nose, or sore throat
- ✓ Have visited within the past two weeks countries or regions where COVID-19 has rapidly expanded and/or is still spreading

Please Follow the Instructions Below:

- Please practice good etiquette by wearing a mask, refraining from coughing near others, and washing and disinfecting your hands.
- Body temperatures will be taken at the entrance to the museum. Visitors who are found to have a fever of 37.5°C (99.5F) or higher will be refused entry.
- Please provide us with your contact details at the entrance as you may be contacted if a case of COVID-19 is later confirmed at the museum.
- Please do not touch exhibits, display cases, or devices that are not in use.
- Please try to stay at least 2 meters away from other visitors inside the museum.
- Please refrain from talking in the exhibition rooms.

We'd also like to inform you that:

- Staff members conduct daily temperature checks and confirm that they are in good health.
- All staff members wear masks or face shields.
- Acrylic panels are installed at counters.
- Disinfectant is placed at the entrance to the museum.
- Thorough cleaning, disinfection, and ventilation is practiced inside the building.
- Coordination with the public health authorities will occur if visitors or staff members develop symptoms associated with the novel coronavirus.

How to book:

Admission to the museum is only possible with an advanced booking, and you can book for up to 10 people at one of the following times.

- ① 10:30am - 11:45 am
- ② 1:30pm - 2:45 pm
- ③ 3:30pm - 4:45 pm

We also appreciate your understanding in the event that the museum is closed without prior notice due to certain circumstances.

We are pleased to announce that Kusuri Museum will reopen on July 7th (Tuesday), following temporary closure in order to prevent the spread of the novel coronavirus. After reopening, the museum will adhere to relevant guidelines and take necessary measures to prevent further spread of the novel coronavirus. We ask for your understanding regarding inconveniences during this time.